

CDA Juniors Attend "Come as You Are" Breakfast

Women Surprise Sleepers

Members of the Junior Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America, were surprised Monday morning with a "come as you are breakfast."

Arriving in robes and sleeping wear, the young ladies had been picked up and pulled out of slumber between 8 and 9 a.m. They were taken to the Redondo City Park where they were served breakfast at 9:30 a.m.

Chairman of the event was Mrs. Richard Abshear. Co-chairman was Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie.

Although there are no business meetings for the juniors during the summer, events such as this surprise are being held.

Dinner Party Honors

A dinner party at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach was given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Rowe of Hollywood Riviera to celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary. Guests included Mrs. Rowe's mother, Mrs. Rae McNaughton of Palos Verdes

Trip to Santa Barbara Follows Evening Vows

August 5 at 8 p.m. was the date marking the joining in marriage of Betty Jo Hope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest D. Hope, 603 Madrid Ave., Torrance, to Howard J. Robinson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Robinson Sr. of Baltimore, Md.

The pair was wed by the Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman at the First Methodist Church of Torrance. The bride was given away in marriage by her father.

Miss Hope wore a ballerina-length gown of nylon organza over taffeta with a lace bodice, shirred cummerbund, scoop neckline and cap sleeves. A fingertip veil was held in place by a lace crown outlined with small pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of white christ lilies and stephanotis.

ATTENDING

Attending the bride was Mrs. Kent L. Harding, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frederick Hayes and Mrs. William Brazel.

Best man was Warren E. Robinson. Kent Harding and Larry Amsterry were ushers at the double-ring ceremony.

The mother of the bride wore a blue sheath and white orchid corsage to the wedding.

SOLOIST

Soloist at the ceremony was the Rev. Donald J. Shelby, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "A Wedding Benediction," accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Margath, organist. Mrs. Odd Pederson was guest registrar.

A reception was held at the church parlor immediately after the ceremony, from which the new Mr. and Mrs. Robinson departed for a honeymoon at Santa Barbara.

ate of Torrance High School and El Camino College, is employed by Engineered Magnetics in Hawthorne. The bridegroom, who was educated in Baltimore and has served in the navy, is employed by Day-Lee Meats in Downey.

The couple will reside at 852 W. 169th St., Gardena, upon return from their honeymoon.

Principal Feted At Farewell Tea

Robbert Dexter, principal of Sepulveda School, was guest of honor at a farewell tea given by the PTA board in the school cafeteria Wednesday, August 2, at 12:30 p.m. Dexter, who will assume the post of principal of Flacian School in September, has served as principal of Sepulveda School since the school's formation five years ago.

Special guest, according to Mrs. Norma Maguire, chairman of the farewell tea, was Mrs. Dexter, the principal's wife. Also present were members of the school faculty.

Assisting Mrs. Maguire were Mrs. Emma Royce, Mrs. Bea Mosher, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Juanita Simon, and Mrs. Sherry Rierson.

Teachers who attended included Clark Merrill, Richard Bishop, Robert Donaldson, and Mmes. Margaret L. Briggs, Frances Orsini, J. Paschall, Marjorie Wilson, Elizabeth Parrino, Mary Rutter, F. Reynolds, May Lahey, McBride, and Geissel.

In addition to the committee, board members present were Elizabeth Cox, music chairman; Elinor Beagle, fifth vice president; Donna Callas, fourth vice president; and Ronnie Saunders, president.

Couple Entertains

Enjoying a seafood dinner together at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes recently were Shirley Litchfield of Torrance, Miss Diane Wilson of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Leonard Heimall of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Northrop of Torrance, who were marking their third wedding anniversary.
